

Brexit - What Irish Brokers Need to Know

John Larkin, Head of Insurance, William Fry

26 April 2017

Overview

---

- ❑ The seminar will provide an important insight for Irish brokers on how to be best prepared for what lies ahead in the short and medium term following the United Kingdom's decision to vote to leave the EU at the June 2016 Brexit referendum.
- ❑ John Larkin, Head of Insurance, William Fry will discuss the key Brexit-related issues impacting Irish brokers from a legal and regulatory perspective. [Ted McGrath, Tax Partner will also briefly discuss the potential tax issues arising which may affect Irish brokers.]
- ❑ A Q&A session will be follow addressing questions from the floor.

Scope

---

This seminar will focus on:

- Demystifying Brexit and highlighting the importance for Irish brokers to actively manage their Brexit risk
- Providing an overview of some of the suggested negatives and positives for the Irish insurance market including the loss by the UK of passporting rights, emerging approaches to restructuring cross-border insurance businesses and competition levels
- The key legal implications for Irish brokers relating to company law, data protection, litigation and dispute resolution and insolvency
- The potential tax implications for Irish brokers involved in the UK market. (Ted McGrath, Tax Partner, William Fry - TBD)

WILLIAM FRY

John Larkin
Partner – Insurance

Email: John.Larkin@williamfry.com

Phone+353 1 639 5224

Ted McGrath
Partner - Tax

Email: Ted.McGrath@williamfry.com

Phone+353 1 639 5262